INTRODUCTION

More than a food market, WOLF is a landmark. A place where Antwerp's heritage, hospitality and creativity come together under one iconic roof.

Inside the historic Felix Pakhuis, WOLF has grown into a meeting point for the city, its residents, its businesses, its cultural scene and its visitors. A warehouse of history, reimagined as a warehouse of culinary and event-experiences.

At its heart, WOLF is a culinary food market: a vibrant concept where local chefs and flavours from all around the world meet on one plate. It's where our guests come to enjoy a culinary experience and have a great moment together.

But WOLF is also an ever-evolving ecosystem built around four pillars:

1. Business & entrepreneurship: a home for companies, events and ideas worth sharing.
2. Sustainability, social impact & wellbeing: because taking care of people and planet is part of the recipe.
3. Culture: art, music and stories woven into everyday life.
4. Tourism: from horeca to overnight stays, welcoming visitors the way Antwerp does best.
